President's Corner...

WHEW!!!! I don't know about you but boy I'm sure glad the holidays are past us. Not that I don't enjoy them, but it seems there is so much hustle and bustle that we don't usually get to just actually enjoy them anymore. So many things just seem like they're rushed these days. No time to ever "stop and smell the roses." We had so many new and exciting things happen at the center this year--A new director and staff, The Silver Opry, The Festival of Lights, the Craft fairs, and so many other things. It's really exciting to see all of the positive new developments that are keeping the center moving forward.

Speaking of new things, a new year brings new beginnings for so many things. People are making resolutions and starting anew. What resolutions are you making if any? We sure would like to hear them! Tell us about them so we can ask you how they are going. That does help you keep on track you know. My New Year's resolution is to eat healthier, and to try and catch myself if I have a negative thought. Who wants to be around a negative Nellie? Hahaha! Not me!

Well, we have many new things going on here at the center as well. Some fun and exciting events are being planned so you won't want to miss out on what's coming in 2018. We have been receiving some great ideas and feedback from you, so keep it coming. We hear you!

And how about our fantastic kitchen? If you haven't gotten your copy of the GVEC 2018 calendar, then you really need to pick one up. They are free. Check out the month of May. The featured recipe is 'Stuffed Manicotti Shells' by none other than our very own Kitchen manager Christy Ramos!!!! How exciting. She has really made a difference in our kitchen, and I know you all have tasted her cooking. She is putting the Silver Center on the map. Thank you, Christy, for all of your hard work.

Thank you all for making the center such a wonderful place to be. I enjoy you all tremendously, and I can't think of a better place to volunteer. As always it is my honor to serve you, and I welcome your feedback at any time. May the New Year bring you an abundance of God's blessings and joy wherever you go.

Sincerely,
Kay Lynn Hawkins
President

Hello From the Front Office!

What a beautiful time of year! December brought us snow... warm weather... cool weather... and cold weather! I hope you were able to enjoy time with some loved ones or friends over the holidays, and you're ready to start off the year with us here at the Silver Center. Did you make it out to our Christmas party? What a night... and what a beautiful showing of love during our Festival of Lights! Thank you to all of our sponsors AND our silent auction donors for making this a very special holiday. We hope to hold the Festival of Lights again next year to spread the love with those who need it most during the holidays.

Please make it a goal to do something GOOD for YOURSELF every day of this upcoming year! Life is too short and too uncertain to not have some fun every day that you can. I've had several friends who lost loved ones recently and several other dear friends who were diagnosed with serious illnesses. Please know that you are loved and appreciated by all of us here at the Silver Center. If you're ill and need a hot meal delivered, give us a call! We can have our handy, dandy volunteers deliver you a meal as long as we know by 10 AM that you'd like to be included in our delivery schedule for the day! We will also be happy to call and check on you if you're feeling ill. Give me a call. We are here for you.

The Humane Society will be here again on January 11th & 12th so please come out and find a treasure for yourself in this event. Speaking of Treasures, I guess you all know that our Thrift Store is up for sale. If you know anyone looking for a prime business or investment location, and GREAT neighbors (us), please have them call our realtor to schedule a viewing of the property... Not only is it a sturdy block building near downtown, it even has a basement!

We have several lucky couples planning to hold their wedding receptions with us soon! If you or a friend would like to rent our building for an event please contact us as soon as possible to save the date!

I wish you a very happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year and hope to see you here...at The Silver Center... Soon!

Tickle Your Funny Bone!

A Retiree's Last Trip to Costco by Velma Buie

Yesterday, I was at Costco buying a large bag of Purina Dog Chow for my loyal pet, Necco, the Wonder Dog, which weighs 191 lbs. I was in the check-out line when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog.

What did she think I had - an elephant? So, because I'm retired and have little time to do, on impulse I told her no, that I didn't have a dog that I was starting the Purina Diet again. I added that I probably shouldn't because I ended up in the hospital last time, but that I lost 50 lbs. before I awakened in an intensive care ward with tubes coming out of most of my orifices, and IV's in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a perfect diet and that the way it works is to load your jacket pockets with Purina Nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry. The food is nutritionally complete so it works well, and I was going to try it again. (I have to mention here that practically everyone in line is now enthralled with my story.)

Horrified, she asked if I ended up in intensive care because the dog food poisoned me. I told her no, I stopped by to pee on a fire hydrant and a car hit me. I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard.

Costco won't let me shop there anymore. Better watch what you ask retired people. They have all the time in the world to think up crazy things to say.

The Confession by Velma Buie

An elderly Italian man, who lived on the outskirts of Rimini, Italy, went to the local Church for confession. When the priest slid open the window to the confessional, the man said, " Father, forgive me for I have sinned. During WWII, a beautiful Jewish woman from our neighborhood knocked urgently on my door and asked me to hide her from the Nazis. So I hid her in my attic."

The priest replied, "That was a wonderful thing you did, and you have no need to confess that." There is more to tell Father..."She started to repay me with sexual favors. This happened several times a week and twice on Sundays." The priest said, "That was a long time ago and by doing what you did, you placed the two of you in great danger, but two people under those circumstances can easily succumb to the weakness of the flesh. However, if you are truly sorry for your actions, you are indeed forgiven." "Thank you Father. That's a great load off my mind. I do have one more question." And what is that?" asked the priest. "Should I tell her the war is over?"

THE SILVER CENTER OPRY IS A GREAT SUCCESS!

Mark your calendars for Thursday, January 18 at 7:00 PM. Buddy Roy, Jay Eric, David Lewis, and Gene Hendrix are our featured Opry lineup, along with our very own Silver Opry Band.

We will be serving cheese enchiladas, rice and beans before the show. Supper starts at 6:00 PM when the doors open. The bar also opens at 6:00. A silent auction begins at 6:00 and ends around 8:00 PM. We have the best local talent and a super great meal, so please join us for a night of fellowship, fabulous music and dancing. Come out and support our singers and the Silver Opry Band!

We are looking for items that we can use for the Silver Opry's SILENT AUCTION. The proceeds benefit the Silver Center, so consider donating an auction item. It can be a plant, gift cards, homemade goodies, anything goes! Contact Glenda, 830-303-6612, with your donation.

Public Open Forum on Death Related Topics:

It's difficult to talk about death or dying, but we all will need to do it at some point in our lives. We need to feel the freedom to talk to others about our questions, our concerns, our experiences, and learn from each other.

Question of the Month:

Is embalming required by law in the state of Texas?

Answer:

No, embalming is not required by law in the state of Texas; although it may be suggested depending on the type of funeral service you select. If a family selects funeral services such as, Direct Cremation or Immediate Burial, it does not require embalming.

We encourage you to ask us those questions that may be weighing over your heads; and you may submit your questions to the following:
