Letter From the President:

Hello Everyone!

It certainly seems like 2024 is off to a quick start! The weather has been like a roller coaster ride and I personally hope the freezing temperatures are behind us. I don't mind the cold, but in South Texas we just aren't accustomed to the lower numbers!

Our monthly dances are back on the calendar. I truly hope that everyone will support us and come out and enjoy our wonderful dance floor. We would love to have more dances, but we have to have enough folks in attendance to be able to pay the band and the electric bill! We always enjoy seeing our regulars and look forward to meeting new people.

Our calendar continues to fill up! We enjoy all the different events and know we are blessed! Please stop by if you are interested in using our facility - we have smaller rooms for smaller events! I recently had someone say they didn't realize we had smaller spaces or that we have a professional, full sized kitchen. And just to brag on our staff, we received a score of 100 on our last inspection! Not many kitchens can say that!! Let us know if we can cater an event for you!

Thank you for your support and as I always mention, we can certainly use more helpers! If you might be interested in volunteering, please come by and visit with us!

Happy Valentine's Day! Make sure your family and friends know you care! We hope to see you soon!!

Rosie Van Booven

BURMA SHAVE SIGNS

For those who never saw any of the Burma Shave Signs: Here's a quick lesson in our history of the 1930's and 40's. Before there were interstates, when everyone drove the old two lane roads, Burma Shave signs would be posted all over the countryside in farmer's fields. They were small red signs with white letters. Five signs, each about a hundred feet apart, each containing 1 line of a 4 line couplet...and the obligatory 5th sign advertising Burma Shave, a popular shaving cream.

Here are more of the actual signs:

- 1. Hardly a driver, is now alive, who passed on hills, at 75----Burma Shave!
- 2. Don't stick your elbow, out so far, it may go home, in another car----Burma Shave!
- 3. Trains don't wander, all over the map, cause nobody sits, in the engineer's lap---Burma Shave!
- 4. She kissed the hairbrush, by mistake, she thought it was, her husband Jake----Burma Shave!
- 5. Don't lose your head, to gain a minute, you need your head, your brains are in it----Burma Shave!
- 6. Drove too long, driver snoozing, what happened next, is not amusing----Burma Shave!
- 7. The midnight ride, of Paul for beer, led to a warmer, hemisphere----Burma Shave!
- 8. Cautious rider, to her reckless dear, let's have less bull, and a little more steer---Burma Shave!
- 9. No matter the price, no matter how new, the best safety device, in the car is you----Burma Shave!
- 10. The one who drives, when he's been drinking, depends on you, to do his thinking----Burma Shave!
- 11. Car in ditch, driver in tree, the moon was full, and so was he----Burma Shave!
- 12. Passing school zone, take it slow, let our little, shavers grow----Burma Shave!

I remember these signs too well! They were always fun to read as we drove along! Each poem ended with----Burma Shave.

If you have an April birthday, and are not on our list, please call us so we can update our records! Please note we currently make to-go lunches, with preorder on Tuesday or Thrusday!
