LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Well, hello everybody! The month of August has flown by with a lot to do to be ready for you. We, here at the Silver Center are all doing well. When we welcome you for your upcoming catered events, you will be pleased with the tasks that we have been working on. I don't have a lot to report. It has been slow at the center due to COVID restrictions and most people erring on the side of caution for health and safety reasons. As always, I sincerely hope and pray that each and every one of you are healthy and doing well. Until I see you all again, may God continue to keep you happy, safe and healthy.

Thank you and God-bless you all,

Danny J Gonzales

Board President, Silver Center

P.S.

John 14:27 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

Peace

HELLO FROM THE FRONT DESK....

What a CRAZY 2020 we have had! Everything we have known to be 'normal' is no longer normal... and we have had to adjust in so many ways. Currently, the Center is still delivering delicious hot lunches within our city limits for $8 apiece. PLEASE DON'T FORGET US! We need your support.

If you have had a birthday and want to PICK UP YOUR COMPLIMENTARY LUNCH (that we owe you as part of your membership) we need to know when you're coming by to get it so we can prepare it for you. We do not have extra meals made every day... so calling ahead is important! The receptionist can help you by having the meal waiting for you in the lobby since we do not currently have our dining room open to the public.

Usually we would hold an all member appreciation meal along with our Board of Directors elections every September. This year, due to COVID gathering concerns, we will have to postpone our appreciation dinner and we will keep the 2 year terms our board always serves under rolling along. We do have a few board members rotating out as is expected every year having fulfilled their terms. We want to thank our dedicated board members for all of the time they give us. We also want to WELCOME some new board members who stepped up to join us as board members in August. PLEASE WELCOME ROSIE VAN BOOVEN, CLINT MCGUFFIN, KELLY CROSS, EMMA JEAN BECKER & WILLO MAE RICHTER to the Silver Center Board of Directors!

Our regular Friday night dances have not resumed yet because of 'masking' requirements within the city, but we are working on a truly fun and exciting EVENT for you! Hopefully, we will be able to start publicizing this BIG EVENT soon, and you can put it on your schedule and purchase your pre-sale tickets. I miss seeing you guys, and I hope some of the everyday things we have all enjoyed for all these years will be back soon.

STAY IN TOUCH AND LET US KNOW HOW YOU ARE DOING! I need to know if you are ready to come back and enjoy time with us here at the Center... so we can speak to our sponsors and ask them to start scheduling events again.

With Love,
-Glenda

Last year we voted to make changes to the election process that we hoped would be more clear and much more simple. Every year we hold elections for our board. Someone who wants to be on the board of directors is allowed to serve up to 2 years during their 1st term... and 2 years of a 2nd term (should they choose to run for a 2nd term) per our Center's by-laws.

THIS YEAR DUE TO THE CORONA VIRUS, WE WILL NOT BE HOLDING AN IN-PERSON BOARD ELECTION MEETING. Luckily, we have had enough volunteers step up to fill our board slots. An election diagram is shown below for you to know who is on first and second years of their election terms. We want to thank Brenda Engelmann and Barbara Behal who have termed out this year for their many years of service to the Center.

An older lady was standing at the rail of the cruise ship holding her hat so that the wind wouldn't blow it away in the wind.

A gentleman approached her and said, "Pardon me, madam, I do not intend to be forward but did you know that your dress is blowing up in this wind?"

"Yes, I know," said the lady. "But I need my hands to hold onto my hat."

"But madam, he said, "you must know that you're derriere is exposed!"

The woman looked down, then back up at the man and said, "Sir, anything you see down there is 85 years old, but I just bought this hat!"

She read, "...and Chicken Little went up to the farmer and said, "The sky is falling!" The teacher then asked the class, "And what do you think that farmer said?" One little girl raised her hand and said, "I think he said: 'Holy Sh't! A talking chicken!'" The teacher was unable to teach for the next 10 minutes.

SMILE AWHILE

Submitted by Velma Buie

A little boy was overheard praying: "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a good time the way I am."

A Sunday school class was studying the Ten Commandments. They were ready to discuss the last one. The teacher asked if anyone could tell her what it was. Susie raised her hand, stood tall, and quoted, "Thou shalt not take the covers off the neighbor's wife."

After the Christening of his baby brother in church, Jason sobbed all the way home. His father asked him three times what was wrong. Finally, the boy replied, "That preacher said he wanted us brought up in a Christian home, and I wanted to stay with you guys."

I had been teaching my three year old daughter, Caitlin, the Lord's Prayer for several evenings at bedtime. She would repeat after me the lines from the prayer. Finally, she decided to go solo. I listened with pride as she carefully enunciated each word, right up to the end of the prayer. "Lead us not into temptation," she prayed, "but deliver us from E-mail."

NO SCHOOL

Someone asked a 6 year old, "Do you know why you are not having school at this time?" He replied, "Because they ran out of toilet paper."

DRIVE OFFENSIVELY

When I started learning how to drive, my dad, completely serious, said to me, "Always weave a little, and all the other cars will stay away from you."

BEAR ADVICE

"If you see a bear, and don't have time to run away, hug it. Bears cannot scratch their stomachs." I'm not sure about this! Take your chances!

PRETEND WE'RE MARRIED

When Mr. Monroe and his lovely assistant were traveling on a business trip, they checked into a hotel that was over-booked. They were told they would have to share a room for one night. After the initial awkwardness, they tucked into separate beds.

"Mr. Monroe," the assistant called out in the dark, "I'm a bit chilly. Would you mind getting me a blanket?" "I have a better idea," Mr. Monroe replied. "Why don't we pretend we are married, just for tonight." "I'd like that," said the assistant. "Good," said Mr. Monroe, "Then get your own blanket."

POWER, LOVE, DISCIPLINE

“God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline” -2 Timothy 1:7

How do we react to uncertain times and facing the unknown? Many react with fear and worry. Some panic. However, God has a different perspective. We find His direction in the words Paul wrote to Timothy. No matter what we face, we are not to be afraid in every situation. God wants us to draw on the Spirit He has given us. Paul used three important words to define this spirit.

Power -As Christians, we are not weak or anemic. Because of Jesus, God the Creator of all things, is our Father. We have access to the greatest power source in the universe. If we want to live in victory, we need to believe and exercise that power!

Love -No matter what we go through, God’s Spirit gives us a love that is beyond human understanding. We can love others even those who do not seem lovable.

Discipline -In uncertain times, it can be easy to feel unstable. Nevertheless, God gives us a spirit that enables us always to be confident. We do not need to fear but can be calm.

The Bible warns us not to be double-minded for those who doubt are “like a wave of the sea blown and tossed by the wind” (James 1:6). Instead, we need to exercise self-control. Ask God today to remove any fear. “Stir up the gift of God.” (verse 6). Allow His Spirit to give you His Power, Love, and Discipline.

Please Be Sure To Vote In Our Upcoming Elections With Your Values!

YES, I’M A SENIOR CITIZEN

I’m the life of the party-even if I only lasts until 8 p.m.

I’m very good at opening childproof caps-with a hammer.

I’m awake many hours before my body allows me to get up.

I’m smiling all the time because I can’t hear a thing you’re saying.

I’m sure everything I can’t find is in a safe, secure place, somewhere.

I’m wrinkled, saggy, lumpy, and that’s just my left leg.

I’m beginning to realize that aging is not for wimps.

Yes, I’m a SENIOR CITIZEN and I think I am having the time of my life!

FINANCIAL FOCUS

When Facing Illness, Take Control of Finances

Have You Planned for Your Legacy? Like most people, you probably want to leave something behind for your loved ones and possibly to some charitable organizations. In other words, you want to create a legacy. But how? To leave the legacy you want, you need to construct a comprehensive estate plan. There's not a "one-size-fits-all" model for everyone, but these are the key elements of most estate plans:

- Beneficiary designations – Beneficiary designations are typically found on retirement accounts (such as your 401(k) and IRA) and life insurance policies. In many states, beneficiary designations may also be added to banking and brokerage accounts, where they are referred to as Pay on Death or Transfer on Death designations. These designations can supersede the instructions on your will – yet nearly two-thirds of Americans have not designated beneficiaries for any of their accounts, according to the recent Leaving a Legacy survey commissioned by Edward Jones. Even if you have designated beneficiaries for your 401(k) and other accounts, you may need to revise them periodically in response to changes in your life – marriage, divorce, new child, etc.
- Will – A will, sometimes referred to as a last will and testament, can help ensure your assets are distributed according to your wishes. And if you have young children, a will can name a guardian if something happens to you and your spouse.
- Trusts – A trust provides you with even greater control than a will. You can dictate exactly how and when your beneficiaries receive the trust's assets, so, for example, if you'd prefer that your grown children not inherit a large sum at once, you can specify that they will get the money over a period of years. And a trust may help your estate avoid the time-consuming, expensive and public process of probate, reducing or eliminating the possibility of intra-family fights over your assets.
- Power of Attorney – A power of attorney lets you name someone to manage your finances should you become incapacitated. This is an especially important document for any individual who doesn't have a spouse to step in.
- Health Care Directive – If you become incapacitated, your health care directive can provide instructions for your health care (a living will) and name a person to make medical decisions on your behalf (a health care proxy).

These documents can be valuable if your family disagrees about your care. Even after you've created your estate plan, you may need to adjust it to accommodate changes in your financial assets, your family relationships, your association with charitable groups, and so on. Plus, you'll need to be aware of changes in tax laws that could affect your plans. In any case, it is essential that you communicate your wishes to your family. Just 49% of beneficiaries are confident they know how to carry out the estate plan of a loved one, according to the Leaving a Legacy survey.

Here is one more suggestion: Get professional help. Your financial advisor can assist you with the investment-related aspects of your estate plan and work with your team of professionals, including an attorney, who can help you create the necessary documents – will, living trust, health care directive, etc. – and a tax advisor, who can provide information on tax aspects of estate assets, among other issues. An estate plan can be a big gift to your loved ones – so take action soon. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors are not estate planners and cannot provide tax or legal advice. You should consult your estate-planning attorney or qualified tax advisor regarding your situation.

September Fun Facts:

As the ninth month of the year, out of all 12 months, September is spelled with the most letters. It contains nine letters and is the 9th month of the year. No other months have the same amount of letters as their number in the calendar year. People born in September are usually more quiet, calm and more peaceful than others. At the same time, they are quite attentive, observant, quick and swift. These folks tend to be rather fussy about food and it's better you don't try to feed them something they don't like. Cleanliness and neatness are the basic personality traits. The birthstone for September is the sapphire, which is found in many different colors but is most well known for being bright, vivid blue. The sapphire is known for representing wisdom, good fortune, truth, and power. September has two birth flowers...the Aster and the Morning Glory. Asters are mainly symbols of powerful love. Because of the positive symbolism that has been carried from folklore, they were once burned to ward off serpents. Asters add a burst of color to late summer and early fall landscapes. The Morning Glory is a symbol of affection. Those who rise early may be able to watch these bloom open. These flowers generally curl closed later in the day, hence their name. The month of September has several U.S. and international holidays, to include: Labor Day, Native American Day, Grandparent's Day, Constitution Day, The Autumn Equinox. Fruits and vegetables that are still plentiful in September would be: blueberries, Swiss chard, artichokes, baby bok (a Chinese vegetable related to cabbage), cauliflower, cucumbers, eggplant, garlic, leeks, parsnips, and apples.

My wife asked me to take her to one of those restaurants where they make the food right in front of you. So I took her to Subway and that's how the fight started.

What is Advanced Care Planning?

This is a process of coming to understand, reflect on, discuss and plan for a time when you cannot make your own medical decisions. Discussing and planning for patient's preferences for life sustaining treatment in the future.

What is involved in the planning process?

Talking with family and health care providers about your care decisions and formally documenting them is very important. Legal documents discuss the type of care you want, where care happens, and who provides it so your family knows your choices and understand who you want to speak for you when you can't speak for yourself.

Care decisions can be about:

- Choosing or refusing tests, procedures and medicines, and life-sustaining treatments.
- Choosing persons to speak for you when you are unable to speak for yourself.
- Completing the necessary legal documents that will guide health care professionals in the future.

Where and by whom is this service provided?

We believe the best time and place to have this conversation is before a health crisis occurs; over the kitchen table instead of over an ICU bed. We can see you at home, at your Assisted Living home, or your Nursing home, and sometimes in the hospital.

Our teams of Advance Care Planning Facilitators are specially trained to guide this conversation and to complete the necessary legal documents. We will provide all advance directives and this service is at no cost to you.

To arrange a consultation with an Advanced Care Facilitator please call: 830.401.7704.

Our staff offers unique funeral services and a wide variety of memorial options for you or your loved one.
 Call today to start planning your wishes – together.

We're here to help.
